

NAATSIHWP

National Association of Aboriginal and Torres
Strait Islander Health Workers and Practitioners

2021 STATE-WIDE FORUM SERIES

WA

29th April 2021

Ceduna

Location: Ceduna Foreshore Hotel Motel
32 O'Loughlin Terrace, Ceduna.

PROGRAM

Join the National Association of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Workers and Practitioners (NAATSIHWP) for a one day CPD networking & professional development workshop.

2021 is bringing the new version Professional Development day to you and your local area. We will be focussing on issues that will strengthen you and your ability to grow in your workforce and update you on the current issues that are happening Nationally for Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Health Workers & Health Practitioners.

2021 forums:

Update from NAATSIHWP: We will present the current projects of NAATSIHWP to keep you up to date with how we are progressing nationally in supporting and promoting your workforce.

Scope of Practice - We run a small conversational workshop that helps you work out the best way to use this valuable resource in your workplace for your benefit and your employer.

Members Portal - Find out how to use this valuable tool so you can keep track of your personal training and look up the many resources available to you.

Cultural Considerations - We open up the conversation around cultural safety and how it effects us all in the workplace. We talk about how to identify unsafe workplaces and what we can do about it.

Self Care Promotion - Generally people who work in health are amazing at looking after everyone else. Not so good at taking care of their own well-being. We talk about ways we can incorporate self-care into our very busy lives.

Fully catered and Free to attend.
