THE STRUGGLING KINGS

The Struggling Kings are made up of three brothers Luke, Mark and Daniel Riches who hail from One Arm Point in the Kimberley, Western Australia. Now based in Perth the group continues to build its momentum making waves in the WA music scene. With the addition of bass and drums their full bodied summer rock sounds have been heard at WA's best music festivals.

The brothers use their Indigenous roots to draw out new creative blends of indie rock and alternative music. The Struggling Kings have taken out the award for WA Music's Best Indigenous Act for 2019.
